Salvage New Autos From Ohio River

Barge Sinks South of Shawneetown; 120 Cars Taken from Upper Decks

Salvage work of recovering new Plymouth automobiles from the waters of the Ohio continued south of Shawneetown Monday after a huge barge carrying them sank late Friday.

The four-deck barge of the Commercial Barge Lines carrying 200 new automobiles sank partially in high winds a mile and a half north of the mouth of the Saline river, a distance of approximately ten miles south of Shawneetown.

Two decks of the barge are completely above the water and about 120 automobiles were taken off by 11 p. m. Friday. Then salvage work had to be started on submerged and nearly submerged machines, numbering between 75 and 80.

Many Witness Operation
A salvage boat with huge crane from the Traylor Brother Construction Co. of Evansville was participating in the job of pulling the water-covered and waterfilled automobiles off the submerged barge and putting them on another. A panel truck parked on the Illinois bank near the scene bore the name of "Vernon Parker, Marine Diver, Metropolis," which indicated Mr. Parker was assisting with the operations.

A number of persons, hearing of the incident, made their way to the bank on the Illinois side to witness the operations.

J. P. MacKenzie of Evansville, vice president in charge of Operation for Commercial Barge Lines, said the loss will run around $100,000, depending on the cost of lifting the barge and the salvage value of the automobiles aboard.

No Injuries

The barge that sank was the lead unit of three being pushed by the tow boat Commercial Express. As the barge began sinking, Commercial Barge Lines officials radioed to the tow boat Commercial Clipper, which was returning to Evansville empty. The Clipper pulled alongside the Express and the approximately 120 automobiles were taken off the crippled barge.

When the transfer operation was completed about 11 p. m. Friday, the Clipper attached the barge on which the Plymouths were loaded and continued the scheduled trip to Memphis, Tenn.

To raise the sunken barge, the salvage crew must seal off all hatches and possible leaks. Then water will be pumped out of each compartment.

The lifting process should take about a week, it was stated. There were no injuries in the sinking or in the rescue operation.

Four Evansville Youths Admit Area Burglaries

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—A series of burglaries in Indiana and southern Illinois were admitted Saturday by four Evansville youths who were arrested as the result of an automobile accident, Evansville police stated.

Melvin D. Walker, 18, and William F. Elliott, 18, and two 17-year-olds were arrested at Elliott's home Saturday.

The youths admitted burglarizing Marlin's General store in Norris City, Ill., about eight hours before their arrest. They told police that they also broke into a service station between Norris City and Carmi, taking change from vending machines.

The owner of the general store reported that about $800 in cash, $300 in merchandise and $1,200 in checks were taken, but police here had recovered only about $300 in cash and a large quantity of merchandise.

Police began a search after a car went out of control and hit a car owned by Lowell Foster. Foster's car was parked in front of his home. Witnesses reported that two youths jumped from the car and fled on foot.

Police traced the ownership of the car to Walker and subsequent investigation led them to the Elliott residence. They said the youths were staying there while Elliott's parents were on a trip.

A variety of goods were found in the car, police said, and a great deal more in the house. Among the goods recovered were 35 sport shirts, four pairs of boots and a double-barreled shotgun.

The youths told police they had taken only about $300 from the store in Norris City. They said they had thrown the checks away.

Police said they will question the youths about a number of local burglaries and then turn the two 18-year-olds over to Illinois authorities. The two have signed extradition papers, police said.

LeMay Pilots Jet Non-Stop To Buenos Aires

Flight of Giant Tanker Displays H-Striking Power

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay set a new jet distance record today when he flew here non stop from Westover Mass., in a giant Stratofortress bomber. It was a dramatic demonstration of the United States intercontinental striking power.

LeMay, who helped develop the U. S. Strategic Air Force into the West's chief deterrent against Communist aggression, displayed a speedup in America's hydrogen bomb striking power. He flew the eight-jet KC-135 tanker to Buenos Aires in 13 hours and two minutes.

It was a 6,300-mile non-stop flight, the longest ever made with out refueling in flight. He took off from Westover at 3:48 p. m. e. s. t. Monday and landed at 4:50 a. m. e. s. t.

By 500 M. P. H.

During the flight the Air Force said the big tanker hit speeds of more than 500 miles an hour and flew at an altitude of more than 35,000 feet. The KC-135 carried a crew of 19 including LeMay, Air Force vice chief of staff.

The Air Force did not announce the flight publicly in advance. But some news items were alerted that it might be attempted.

The historic flight was originated as a highlight of Argentina's National Aviation Week.

But it also dramatically turned the world spotlight back on America's chief retaliatory weapon, its long-range Strategic Air Command, after weeks of space missile talk generated by Russia's launching of two earth satellites.

The KC-135 is designed to help the nuclear-armed B-52s get to their targets faster, anywhere in the world. The jet tanker can refuel the big bombers on the run without loss of speed or altitude.

At present they are refueled by DC-97 (propeller-driven) tankers which are much slower and have a top altitude of 25,000 to 30,000 feet. B-52s have to slow down, drop their normal 50,000-foot cruising altitude, refuel and then climb back up again, consuming extra fuel.

LeMay during nine years as head of the SAC led the fight to convert the nation's chief striking force to jet aircraft. He became vice chief of staff last July and has been mentioned as a possible candidate for Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the Armed Forces.

Los Angeles Man Buys Two Hardin Fluorspar Mines

Two long established fluorspar mines in Hardin County, including one in which John Humm of Harrisburg is an owner, have been purchased by H. Evan Roberts, Los Angeles, Calif., who plans to expand the production of acid grade fluorspar, at his newly acquired properties.

The purchase marks the first entry into the area of a large and important fluorspar producer during the last 20 years.

The mines are Mackey-Humm, which has been in operation for 20 years, and the Hicks Creek Fluorspar Mining Co., which has operated in Pope and Hardin counties for the past 10 years.

Roberts owns and operates the largest metallurgical grade fluorspar mine in the world. It ships from Montana more than 60,000 tons a year.

Over the past few weeks, surveys of the local properties have been conducted, and administrative personnel for the new company is arriving in Rosiclare. The company stated all local employees will be retained and additional employees are to be hired from local sources.

Both mines have been producers of high grade crude ore for several years. The new company plans to expand the flotation mill and increased production of acid ore. Operations are to be taken over on Nov. 15.

Roberts is also a major shareholder in the Pacific Uranium Co., which, with the Kerr-McGee Organization, completed last summer the largest uranium mill in the country.

J. F. Foster, 64, Dies; Funeral Wednesday 10:30

James Franklin Foster, 64, Harrisburg RFD 4, died in his home Sunday morning. He is survived by his wife, Therese, and his two children, Thomas Foster, Harrisburg, and Mrs. Louise Stone, RFD 4, Harrisburg; his brothers, Clarence Foster, Harrisburg, Louie Foster and Harvey Foster, Elgin, and Bob Foster, Detroit, Mich.; and his sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Pritchett, Elgin, and Mrs. Bob Morris, Detroit, Mich. He was preceded in death by his brother Tom Foster. Two grandchildren, Donny Roy and Randy, are sons of Mrs. Louise Stone. He was the son of the late Luther and Orpha Foster.

Mr. Foster, with his wife, owned and operated Foster's cafe for 27 years. Previous to that time he worked for the O'Gara coal company.

The body will lie in state at the Turner funeral home and the funeral will be held there at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday. Rev. Clayton Humphrey will officiate and burial will be in the Sunset Hill cemetery.

Nina Davidson Crowned Queen of Carrier Mills High

Miss Nina Davidson was crowned Queen of the fifth annual Carrier Mills Community high school Homecoming late Saturday night in one of the highlights of the big affair.

Homecoming activities were scheduled to start Friday evening with a bon fire, pep rally and snake dance, but these outdoor events were called off due to the inclement weather.

With business houses and streets decorated with "Welcome Alumni" banners the homecoming parade of some 25 units moved off promptly at 2 p. m. Saturday.

There was an alumni tea and get together of the Lettermen's club at Teen Town during the afternoon, the Old Timers' dinner was held at 5:30 in the 100F hall, two basketball games were played, with Carrier Mills winning the varsity game 50-45 after dropping the preliminary 40-38.

Then came the dance and coronation ceremonies.

Prize winning floats in the open classification were: 1. Rebekah lodge, 2. PTA, and 3. Sorority club. Winners in the school division: 1. Industrial Arts club, 2. Sophomore class, 3. Freshman class.

Carrier Mills' two fire trucks led the parade, then came the band,

Hope Wanes for Any Survivors of Stratocruiser

HONOLULU (AP)—Hope waned today for the rescue of any survivors from a Pan American Stratocruiser missing since Friday with 44 persons aboard.

Even as more ships and planes joined in what appeared to be a futile search, Pan American World Airways launched an investigation to determine if there was "any element of a crime" in the disappearance of the plane.

"We will go into all angles possible," said a Pan American spokesman in San Francisco. "Our first job is to find the plane, of course, but it is also our duty to determine the cause of the plane's disappearance."

Twirlers and cheerleaders, queen attendants Nina Davidson, Judy Brewer, Geraldine Fitts and Dirla Dobrey and class attendants fresh man Judy Wells, sophomore Mary Rose Todd and junior Sharon Russell riding in open convertibles and a large number of decorated floats and cars.

Mrs. Ida Choisser, Member of Pioneer Eldorado Family, Dies

Funeral Services Wednesday at Martin Funeral Home

Mrs. Ida Choisser of Eldorado, member of the pioneer Elder family, early settlers of Saline county, died suddenly Sunday afternoon.

Her funeral will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the chapel of the Martin funeral home, where the body lies in state. The Rev. A. B. Clodfelter, pastor of the First Methodist church of Eldorado, of which she was a member, will conduct the rites and burial will be in the family plot at Wolf Creek cemetery.

Mrs. Choisser, who was born in Eldorado and who lived there all her life, was 85 years old. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Elder. Her husband, Ida Choisser, died in 1945.

Her family consists of the following children: Joseph W. Choisser, Mrs. H. C. Holdaway, Eugene Choisser, a Saline county sheriff in the early thirties, Ralph W. Choisser, former Saline county judge, and Dr. John E. Choisser, all of Eldorado, and Mrs. P. J. Valtor of Coral Gables, Fla.; and two sisters, Mrs. W. D. Upchurch and Mrs. Madge Roberson of Eldorado. She was a sister of the late Dr. Charles Elder of Harrisburg and Dr. Emil Elder of Eldorado, Saline county dentists, and Dick Elder of Eldorado.

Also surviving are seven grandchildren, including Mrs. H. E. Mitchell Jr. of Harrisburg, and two

Will Give White House His Views When Prepared

Was Not Invited To Accompany President to Paris

WASHINGTON (UP)—The White House said today that Adlai E. Stevenson has declined an administration invitation to help prepare the American program to be submitted to the December NATO meeting in Paris.

But Eisenhower's unsuccessful Democratic opponent in 1952 and 1956 was willing, according to the White House, to give his views publicly on the program after it has been prepared.

"The administration plans to avail themselves of that offer of Mr. Stevenson," Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen.

Stevenson was not invited to accompany the President to Paris, nor has the White House made any overtures to former President Truman in connection with preparation of the program. Apparently Stevenson will be informed of the program after it is submitted to the NATO council meeting, and he then will make some public statement on what he thinks of it.

The American program, according to Hagerty, certainly will not be made public before it is submitted to the NATO meeting which opens Dec. 16.

61 Attend NSC Meeting

The President today presided at a record-sized meeting of the National Security Council and a large staff of advisers.

The meeting, called specially, was held as key administration officials began to form definite plans for a new budget sufficient to meet threats to American security.

The Security Council meeting lasted an hour and a half. Present were 61 persons in addition to the President.

Before the unprecedentedly large council meeting, the President conferred on next year's foreign aid program with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Secretary of Treasury Robert B. Anderson, and Budget Director Percival Brundage.

None of the conferees talked publicly after the meetings, and Hagerty supplied only the sketchiest details.

Two Afternoon Meetings

The White House statement about Stevenson was in response to questions about reports that he would become a foreign policy adviser to the administration and possibly accompany the President to Paris.

Hagerty said the request was made by Secretary of State Dulles. This was the second time that Stevenson has turned down a bid to take an active role in administration foreign affairs.

He was offered membership on the U. S. delegation to the United Nations in 1953 but declined. There also have been recent reports that the former Illinois governor was sounded out on possible appointment to the new Civil Rights Commission, but Hagerty today referred these reports to Stevenson without comment.

The President scheduled an afternoon meeting with Aneurin Bevan, foreign policy leader of the British Labor Party, who has urged a "summit" meeting of Western and Soviet leaders.

Inquest Friday in Otis McGrew Death

James Thornton, coroner, will hold an inquest into the death of Otis McGrew, 62, of Ridgway, who died at 12:45 a. m. Nov. 9. The inquest will be held in the Eldorado city hall at 7 p. m. Friday.

New Officers in Charge At WCTU Meeting Held At Presbyterian Church

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met Nov. 5 in the First Presbyterian church with the new officers, who were installed Oct. 1, in charge.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Louis Gall, president, and was opened with song. Miss Grace Collier was at the organ.

Mrs. Robert Melven led in prayer, followed by a solo by Mrs. L. N. Davenport, entitled "Lord, In This Hour of Tumult Hear Our Prayer."

The devotion, given by Mrs. Ethel Burley was taken from Matthew 25:37-40 and Luke 10:29-34 including thoughts on "The Word," "The Word" and "The Way," concluding with a poem entitled "An Appeal" and a prayer for a better America.

The president, in speaking of the outline of work for the year made it clear that every member will play an important part in accomplishing the many projects outlined, and mentioned "The Foundation Says" magazine as one which gives scientific temperance instruction, and is highly praised by teachers for helping in this work. "Our Union has sent this magazine to our public schools for several years and just recently sent in 33 subscriptions for this year," Mrs. Gall stated. It is published by American Business Men's Research Foundation.

The new officers of the local WCTU are: President, Mrs. Louis Gall Jr.; vice president, Mrs. Kirt Gasaway; secretary, Mrs. Marie Holland; treasurer, Mrs. Edith Morrison.

The department directors are: Flower mission, Mrs. Imogene Hunt; soldiers and sailors, Mrs. Alvin Render; Christian citizenship, Mrs. Robert Melven; spiritual life, Mrs. George Fowler; membership, Mrs. Kirt Gasaway; child welfare, Mrs. Virgil Wright; Christian temperance education, Mrs. L. N. Davenport.

Last year the Harrisburg union had 96 members. November is roll call month and if all last year's members pay their dues by December the union will be known as a "Hold Fast Union." Thirteen new members joined the union.

The book selected for study this year is "The Christian Case for Abstinence." Ministers from all over the United States from many denominations contributed the sermons contained in the book.

The meeting was closed with prayer. The next meeting will be at the Church of God on Charleston street on Dec. 3.

Nursery Shower For Daughter At Charles Stricklin Home

Mrs. Charles Stricklin, 921 Chaney street, Harrisburg, held a nursery shower in her home recently for her daughter, Mrs. Bill Powell of Galatia. The gifts were presented in a bassinet over which a stork hovered. There were games to amuse the guests and prizes were won by Ann Romanosky, Pauline Durfee and LaVerne Jones.

Following the opening and admiring of the many gifts, refreshments were served by the hostess. Refreshments were angel cake, tinted pink and blue, gelatin with whipped cream, coffee and cold drinks. Favors of storks made with gumdrops were given to the guests, also.

Those attending were: Shirley Romanosky, Delores Webb, Gladys Logan, Beulah Yarber, Rosa Stricklin, Ruth Deal, Betty Deal, LaVerne Jones, Nelle Newcombe, Elva Powell, Rosa Short, Sarah Fox, Pauline Durfee, Ann Romanosky, Della Abby, Ethel Keneipp, Ruby Turner, Pearl Aldridge, Judith Stump, Pat Cook, Bernice Hampton, Hilda Stricklin, Nora Mattingly, and the hostess.

Mrs. Charley Pulliam, Miss Brenda Pulliam, Mrs. J. W. Pulliam and Mrs. Jake Miltstead shipped in Evansville, Ind., Monday. They met Mr. and Mrs. Coy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shain and other Harrisburg people who were spending the holiday in Evansville. Tommy Golden, Mrs. Frances Golden, Miss Ilene Collins and Charles Pavelonis were in Evansville, also.

November Meeting Held By St. Ann's Altar Society

St. Ann's Altar society held its November meeting Wednesday, Nov. 6th, in St. Mary's church hall. Three new members, Mrs. Edith Morrison, Mrs. Bill Plater and Mrs. Louise Trotter, were present and one guest, Miss Mary Sisky, was introduced.

The opening prayer by Mrs. Marie McCormick was followed by the devotion by Mrs. H. N. Jarvis, who read "A Mother's Quiz" from a pamphlet issued by the "Confraternity of Christian Mothers."

Miss Ruby Thomas, treasurer, gave a satisfactory report on the fall dinner and bazaar held in October and she also reported on the rummage sale held recently.

Father T. G. Brunns announced that a Catholic Hour, "Rome Eternal," would begin in January over WSIL-TV.

It was voted to donate $10.00 for stamps for the TV program, $10.00 to the "Student Aid Society" and $10.00 to the Veterans hospital, Marion, to be used in carrying out its Christmas program.

Mrs. J. J. Klein gave an interesting report on the Diocesan meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women held in East St. Louis and the "Confraternity of Christian Doctrine" meeting held in Belleville, both of which she attended.

Mrs. Katherine Bobka, Miss Edith Pfister, Mrs. Billie Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Schalsky and Mrs. Ed Moore were appointed on the nominating committee to select officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Robert Patrick president, announced that a potluck dinner at 6 o'clock would be held at the December meeting and asked the members to bring either 50c in cash or a 50c food donation to be used in filling the baskets to be sent out for Christmas.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Father Brunns.

Pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the committee of the month: Mrs. Ida Mitsdarffer, Mrs. Bill Plater, Mrs. Steve Puzsik, Mrs. Joseph Gall, Mrs. Andrew Pekkelnick, Mrs. Mary Kapas, Mrs. Mary Matic, Mrs. Marie Koester and Mrs. John Pickford.

Miss Mary Richardson, Miss Iris Craggs, Miss Inez Craggs, Mrs. Elizabeth Myrna of Eldorado, Miss Le Anderson and Mrs. Mary Louise Streich were in St. Louis on a shopping trip Monday. All of the women saw Cincera except Mrs. Streich who visited Miss Vera E. Shore in her home.

John Foster was in St. Louis, Mo., Monday on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barnett were in Evansville, Ind., Monday on a shopping trip.

The double-bitted axe was a religious symbol in Crete and elsewhere.

IAA Delegates Report Variations in Crop Conditions at Annual Meeting

CHICAGO (AP) — How hard did the heavy rains of spring and summer hurt the farmer in Illinois?

In Fayette County, gross farm income will be cut more than one-third by the wet start of the growing season, County Farm Adviser J. B. Turner said today.

Turner was one of more than 5,000 Illinois Agriculture Assn. members attending the organization's 43rd annual meeting at the Hotel Sherman.

The delegates and members reported great variations in crop conditions this year. McHenry County delegate Ralph Nichols of near Hebron reported a "drought" in his area which cut corn yields.

However, most farmers when asked about the area that suffered from rains the most named Fayette County and the surrounding sections.

Turner, 56-year-old farm expert who has been Fayette County adviser since 1935, said he measured more than 50 inches of rainfall between April 1 and July 30 in the Brownstown experimental plot.

The four-month deluge compared with a normal total of 35.39 inches a year, Turner said.

"The seven and a half to eight million dollars of gross revenue in Fayette County a year will be cut this year by about 35 per cent," Turner said. That would put the loss at close to three million dollars.

The IAA delegates split up to hear reports or the operation of 5 of 11 cooperatives Monday. They will hear 6 others today. Youth and women's activities also were reviewed today.

Officials of the IAA reported that the 11 enterprises produced a gross revenue in reports of their last fiscal years of more than 251 million dollars — a gain of more than 25 million dollars over the previous year.

More than 11 million dollars was paid out in dividends and patronage funds the reports said. The total was nearly three million dollars more than the previous year.

The gross revenue and the dividends for each enterprise included:

Illinois Grain Corp., $74,404,468; $286,491.

Illinois Farm Supply Co., $66,

REV. ORAL ROBERTS, Tulsa, Okla., evangelist, who will hold a six-day meeting at Roberts Municipal Auditorium in Evansville, Ind., beginning Nov. 19.

Rev. Oral Roberts to Hold Evangelistic Crusade in Evansville, Ind., Nov. 19-24

Rev. Oral Roberts, Tulsa, Okla., evangelist, will hold the thirteenth revival series of his 1957 "Million Souls for Christ Crusade" in Evansville, Ind., Nov. 19-24, at the Roberts Municipal Auditorium.

The 6-day meeting will be held under the sponsorship of the "Tri State Full Gospel Fellowship," Chairman of the ministers' committee is the Rev. Joe Ragsdale, Evansville.

This will be the thirteenth meeting series, held this year either in auditoriums or the "cathedral tent," of Rev. Roberts' world outreach ministry.

There is no admission charge for any service, and no charge for prayer cards, which are given out at afternoon services only. No cards are distributed at the final afternoon service, Nov. 24.

In the crusades held in the United States so far this year, the total attendance has been estimated at more than 1 million persons. Of this audience, over 50,000 persons have pledged themselves to the active Christian life.

Rev. Roberts' ministry is non-denominational. He welcomes any one who wishes to hear him preach, but he urges them to join a church or return to the church of their own choosing.

Many people ask the evangelist to pray with them for deliverance from ills of the spirit, mind or body, and remarkable instances of recovery have been reported in the course of his 10-year ministry.

The Tulsa clergyman is a firm advocate of use of the medical profession with its God-given skills.

"Medical science and the treatment it employs should be utilized to the fullest extent," he says. "But there comes times when we must turn to God for help. When people ask me to pray with them, I add my own faith and prayers to theirs, and I ask everyone else in our services to pray with us. We know God can do what no earthly power can do. I am not a 'faith healer'—I don't believe in them. Only God can heal—not mortal man."

Revival crusades are only a part of Reverend Roberts' evangelistic ministry. Another important phase of his evangelism is his weekly series of radio and television programs in the United States and Canada. He is heard on short-wave programs in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, South Africa, Australia, Bermuda, Formosa, India, Luxembourg, New Zealand, Okinawa, Philippine Islands, Panama, British Guiana, Russia, and American Samoa.

The tentative schedule of services for the Evansville meeting is as follows:

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astounding statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

Nationwide Direct Distance Dialing comes to Harrisburg

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17
1:01 A. M. CENTRAL STANDARD TIME

Next Sunday telephone customers at Harrisburg, Eldorado, Carrier Mills, Shawneetown, and Stonefort will be able to dial millions of telephones in 800 cities and towns without the usual assistance of an operator. All long distance telephone calls made by Nationwide Direct Distance Dialing will be automatically timed for the customer, eliminating human error.

Only station-to-station calls can be made by this new Direct Distance Dialing. Person-to-person calls will be made in the usual manner by dialing "OPERATOR" (zero). Complete information will appear in your new telephone directory which you will receive sometime this week.

"THEY'RE CATCHING ON, BUT THEY CAN'T CATCH UP." That's how lots of people feel about the "new 1958" cars that are trying to match the Dodge Swept-Wing look. These other cars have been lowered some, but still seem high and boxy by comparison. A few are "catching on" to fins, but they're years from

"catching up." And the air suspension offered by some cars (at well over $100 extra) can't compare with the sway-free, dip-free ride of Dodge Torsion-Aire (standard equipment on all models). So on your way home from someone else's new car showing, stop in and compare it with Swept-Wing '58 by Dodge. You'll see what we mean.

1958 Mercurys Feature New Park Lane Series; Now on Display at Wiley's

New Mercurys for 1958 are now on display at the Wiley Motor Company, Harrisburg dealer.

The new line features a big new "super Mercury" series called the Park Lane, and major styling and engineering changes in its full line of cars with a total of 20 models.

The new Park Lane, with three models, is the biggest and most luxurious Mercury ever built. It has a wheelbase of 125 inches and it is 220.2 inches long—nine inches longer than the 1957 Mercurys.

Matchless performance throughout the entire driving range is provided in a series of four new Mercury Marauder overhead valve V-8 engines with horsepower ranging from 312 to 400. These new engines feature such unique engineering concepts as water-jacketed intake manifold and combustion chambers in the engine block rather than in the cylinder head.

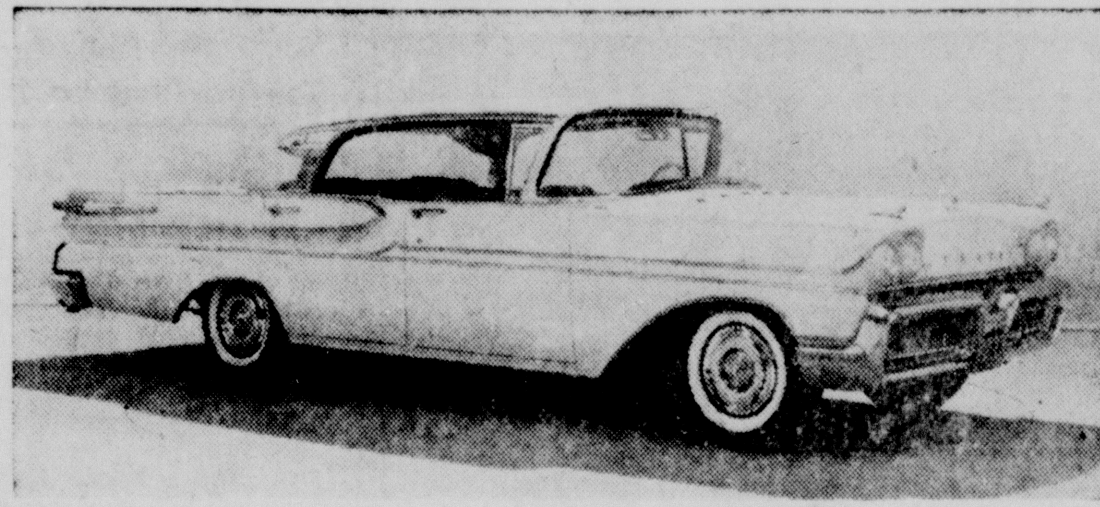

Full air cushion suspension, which improves the ride considerably by greatly reducing pitch and other road and driving disturbances, is optional. This suspension uses air as a springing medium instead of steel, and it maintains the height of the car at a constant level regardless of number of passengers.

In a major styling change, all front end sheet metal in the 1958 Mercury is new and features a longer, lower hood which carries a graceful step up to the cowl. New sculptured ender lines blend with a heavier bumper-grille and incorporate quad-beam headlights as standard equipment.

Long, deep-channelled side projectiles with unique tubular chrome outrigger tail light and a re-styled thin roof line with narrower quarter posts and greater rear roof overhang accentuate Mercury's crisp appearance and give it a low, fast silhouette.

Living room luxury is provided in the magnificent interiors, all color co-ordinated to complement the attractive array of exterior body colors.

Four transmissions are offered, including a new Merc-O-Matic Multi-Drive automatic transmission which gives flexibility in meeting individual driving requirements or habits. Multi-Drive has three forward ranges, cruising range which meets normal driving needs, a "high performance" range for fast acceleration and hill control or low range for maximum engine braking on extremely steep grades or for extra pulling power. A hill-holder operator in cruising range,

THE BIGGEST and most luxurious Mercury ever built—the new Park Lane series—was designed to appeal to the more discriminating buyers in the upper-medium price bracket. Striking styling features and big car size—220.2 inches long and 125-inch wheelbase—distinguish the Park Lane. Mercury will offer 20 models for 1958. The new 1958 Mercury is on display today at the Wiley Motor Co., Harrisburg dealer.

preventing the car from slipping back when stopping on steep grades. Multi-Drive is standard on the Park Lane models and optional on all others.

An improved Merc-O-Matic automatic has been designed for adaptation to the increased torque capacity of the Mercury Marauder engines. It includes a stronger, welded steel converter which replaces the bolted converter used previously. Merc-O-Matic is standard on Montclair models and on Voyager and Colony Park station wagons. Keyboard control for automatic transmissions is simplified in design.

Conventional synchromesh transmission is standard on Monterey models and on Commuter station wagons and overdrive is optional.

Colman Named Princeton Coach

PRINCETON, N. J. — Dick Colman, who guided Princeton's football team to first place in the Ivy League as acting head coach, took over today as the full-fledged new coach of the Tigers on a three-year contract extending through 1960.

Colman was officially named head coach Monday on his 43rd birthday, succeeding his gridiron "father," Charley Caldwell, who died of cancer on Nov. 1.

The Tigers, currently leading the Ivy League with a record of six victories in seven games under Colman, greeted the announcement of his appointment at Monday's practice with a cheer and then went back to work getting ready for a key tussle this Saturday against Yale.

Colman, 17th head coach in Princeton's 89-year football history, promised the squad to "do the best job possible."

Colman had been acting head coach since Sept. 23, five days before the start of the season, when poor health forced Caldwell to drop the reins.

ELKS TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

SCENE OF GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION—This is the Harrisburg Elks Lodge No. 1058 where members of Harrisburg Lodge No. 1058 are celebrating the 50th anniversary of the lodge, which was chartered in 1907. The building, erected in 1939, is a modern, functional Elks home in every respect, from the recently redecorated lodge room on the second floor to the warmth and atmosphere of the Rathskeller in the basement. Harrisburg lodge has a distinctive record of service to the community, and to district and state Elksdom through the years, and the members are looking forward to the celebration of these years of service. The celebration begins with a banquet tomorrow night in honor of the visit of Grand Exalted Ruler H. L. Blackledge, and a large attendance is expected.

Grand Exalted Ruler Blackledge Will Be Welcomed with Parade Wednesday To Begin Lodge's 4-Day Celebration

GRAND EXALTED RULER H. L. BLACKLEDGE

Grand Exalted Ruler H. L. Blackledge Is Third Nebraskan to Head Elks

H. L. Blackledge, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, is a Kearney, Nebraska, lawyer. Elected at the 93rd Grand Lodge convention in San Francisco in July, 1957, Mr. Blackledge is the third Nebraskan to head the Order since it was founded in 1868.

The leader of America's 1,200,000 Elks was initiated into Grand Island Lodge No. 604 in 1927. He transferred his membership to Kearney Lodge No. 394 two years later and was elected Exalted Ruler there in 1935. In an Elk career spanning three decades, Mr. Blackledge served as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler in 1945, and in 1948 was appointed to the Grand Lodge Committee on Judiciary, serving seven years, two as Chairman. In that post he compiled and edited the 1955 edition of the Order's Annotated Statutes. He was elected President of the Nebraska Elks Association in 1952, and in 1955 was appointed to a five-year term as a Justice of the Grand Forum, the Order's highest court.

From 1947 to 1952 Mr. Blackledge was in charge of Elk ritualistic work in Nebraska. In recognition of the services he rendered in this field the Nebraska Elks Association designated its annual award to the state's outstanding ritualistic team as the "Hobe Blackledge Ritualistic Trophy". As leader of the state's Elks in '952, he planned and edited the "Cornhusker Elks," which became the Association's official publication. Grand Exalted Ruler Blackledge was born in Red Cloud, Nebraska, in 1900. He was graduated from the University of Nebraska Law School in 1925, and began the practice of law in Grand Island, Nebraska. In 1929, he removed to Kearney. Mr. Blackledge has long been active in the civic, professional and business affairs of his city. He is general counsel and a member of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Kearney, the city's largest financial institution. A former President of the Kearney Chamber of Commerce, he has served as Chairman of its Executive Committee, and for more than 20 years was a member of the Board of Directors. Mr. Blackledge has been a trustee of the Kearney Public Library for 15 years. He is a past President of the Kearney Country Club and a member of the American Legion.

Mr. Blackledge is married to the former Helen Negley of Council Bluffs, Iowa. The Blackledges are communicants of the Episcopal Church. Mr. Blackledge has served as Senior Warden of his church for several terms, and was for many years Chancellor to the Bishop.

Fifty years of service to the community are being celebrated this week by Harrisburg Lodge No. 1058 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, with a four-day Golden Anniversary celebration starting tomorrow, Nov. 13. Exalted Ruler John R. Small announced today.

To begin the celebration, the Harrisburg lodge is being honored by a visit from the Elks' Grand Exalted Ruler, H. L. Blackledge of Kearney, Neb., who will speak at a banquet Wednesday night at the country club. Prior to the evening's festivities, the Grand Exalted Ruler will be welcomed to town at 3:30 p. m. by a parade, complete with band music, floats and decorated cars from business firms and civic organizations. The parade will form on Webster street in front of the Junior high school, proceed east on Church to Main, north to the square and then around the square in a counterclockwise direction.

To Honor Schnierle

Thursday night's activities will include a free dinner for local and visiting Elks at the Elks club, followed by lodge and the initiation of the Golden Anniversary class of candidates. Dinner will be served in the Rathskeller at 6:30, with lodge at 8 p. m.

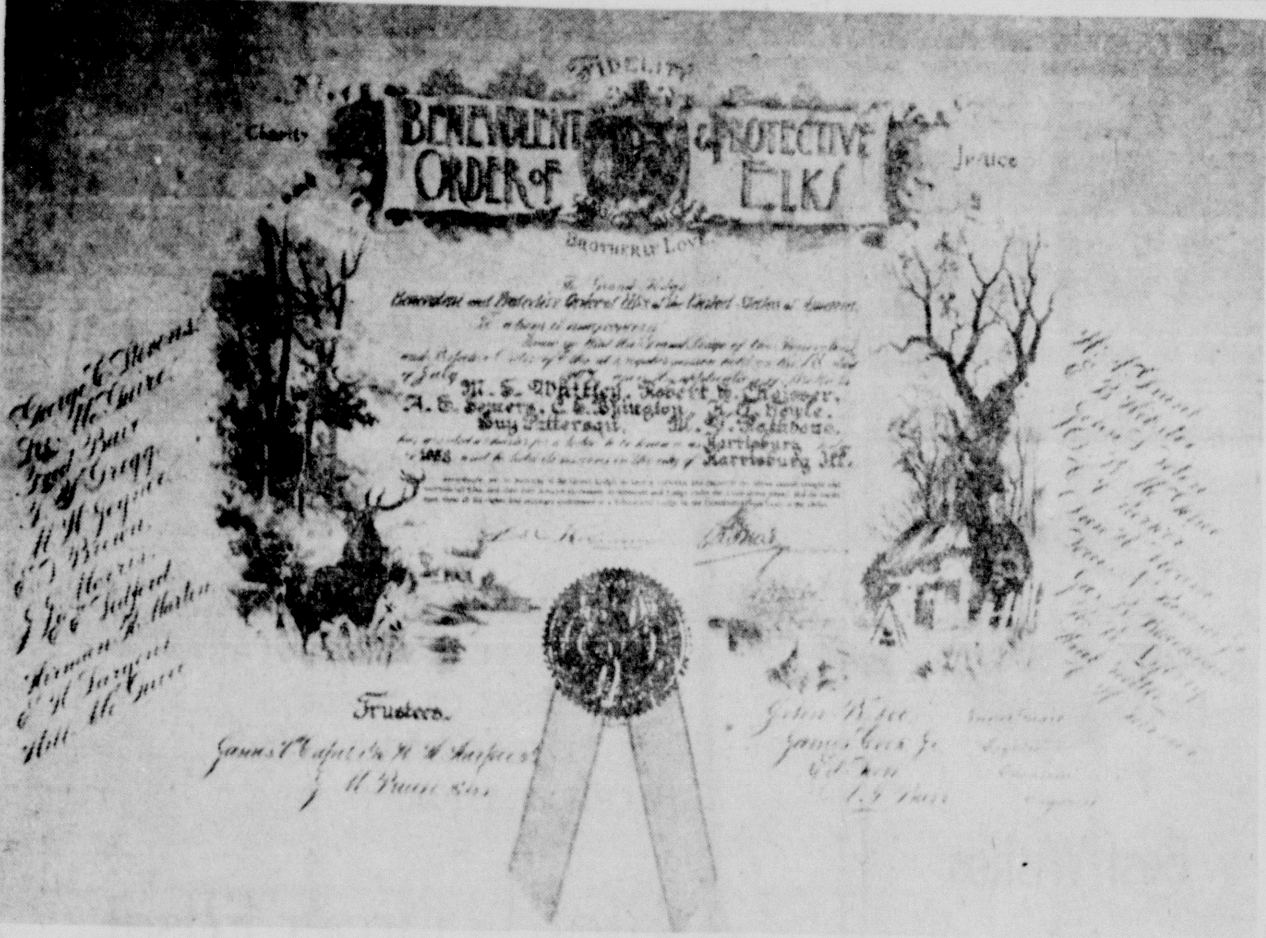

Friday night, the local lodge will honor Illinois Elks Association President Eugene W. Schnierle with a party and tea dance in the Rathskeller, starting at 8:00 p. m. Climaxing the four-day celebration will be the Grand Ball on Saturday night, with music by Johnny Moore's outstanding orchestra starting at 9 p. m. The Rathskeller will also be serving charcoal-broiled delicacies Saturday night from 6 til 9 p. m.

In announcing the celebration, Exalter Ruler Small pointed out to members that tickets are still available for the banquet Wednesday night, and reservations may be obtained by calling the club, or by contacting any officer of the lodge.

Eleven O'Clock Is Sacred Hour

Eleven o'clock is the Sacred hour of Elksdom. When this hour arrives, it is the custom for all activities to cease and the lights extinguished in every Elk's Home in the world. The meaning and significance of this observance are best explained by the wording of the Toast as it is recited in the darkened rooms by the Exalted Ruler of the lodge:

"My brothers (and friends), you have heard the tolling of eleven strokes. This is to remind us that with Elks the hour of eleven has a tender significance. Wherever an Elk may roam, whatever his lot in life may be, when this hour falls upon the dial of night the great heart of Elksdom swells and throbs. It is the golden hour of recollection, the homecoming of those who wander, the mystic roll call of those who come no more. Living or dead, an Elk is never forgotten, never forsaken. Morning and noon may pass him by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the West, but ere the shadows of midnight fall, the chimes of memory shall be pealing forth the friendly message, 'To our absent brothers.'"

E. B. Webster Tells of Organization; Praises Crippled Children Work

Genial Ed Webster pulled out of his pocket a folder containing nine old cards.

They were membership cards in Harrisburg Lodge 1058 B.P.O. Elks for periods between 1912 and 1914, signed by J. B. Hetherington, Jesse P. Dorris and George B. Miley.

And if he had to produce semi-annual dues cards for all the years he has been a member, he'd still be pulling them out of his pockets. Mr. Webster is the only living charter member of Harrisburg Elks lodge who is still on the rolls of the lodge.

A look at the charter hanging in the lodge room reveals there were 36 charter members when the local lodge was founded fifty years ago this past summer.

Tells of Early Organization
"Marion Whitley, the lawyer, was one of the foremost in the move to get an Elks lodge organized in Harrisburg," said Mr. Webster, dean of druggists in our town.

"He and several others, including Bob Choiser, came around to see me and ask if I would join and I told them I would," he continued.

The lodge was organized and got its charter, which is dated July 18, 1907.

Mr. Webster's card number has been No. 15 down through the years.

"We organized in the Odd Fellows building, right where it stands now," Mr. Webster stated. "Then we got two upstairs rooms back of the Gregg drug store, up about where Ronnie's studio was situated before it moved recently."

Attended Early Dances

He related that the lodge was there for a while, then moved to the old opera house, where it occupied two floors over what is now

E. B. Webster

Schnierle's cafe.

"I was too busy trying to make a living to take a big part in Elks work," he stated. "I held some of the lower seats but did not have the time to go on up. I was more of a pinch hitter."

"They used to have dances once a week when the rooms were over Gregg's," Mrs. Webster stated. "Mr. Webster and I attended them. Then there was a Ladies Day every week—I believe it was on Friday—and on this day the wives could use the facilities of the lodge rooms."

"The Harrisburg lodge can well be proud of its present home," Mr. Webster commented. "I've been in lodges in towns a lot bigger than Harrisburg and they couldn't compare with the building here."

Three Others Still Living

"And there's something else I would like to say," he concluded. "The assistance given to crippled children is one of the greatest things that could be done."

A look at the charter reveals that of 36 charter members, at least three on the list who have not kept up their membership are living. They are A. I. Bair, Ural Tuttle and Herman R. Martin.

The charter reveals that it was issued upon the application of M. S. Whitley, Robert E. Choiser, A. E. Somers, C. E. Byington, H. T. Towle, Guy Patterson and W. V. Rathbone, and lists these other charter members:

John B. Lee, James Cook Jr., Ed Scott, A. I. Bair, Jos. V. Capel, W. H. Harper, J. M. Pruett, George C. Stevens, Lee McGuire, Fred Bair, T. Y. Gregg, M. W. Joyner, E. S. Brown, J. J. Morris, E. E. Ledford, E. H. Largent, Will McGuire, W. A. Grant, E. B. Webster, John L. Seten, D. B. McGee, Chas. V. Parker, Dan W. Sloan, Louis N. Parish Jr., Jas. B. Blackman, R. B. Nyberg, Ural Tuttle and C. W. Turner.

In these men is much of the history of Harrisburg.

James Arensman Head of Crippled Children's Committee 17 Years

James Arensman can speak with authority because he has been head of the Crippled Children's committee of Harrisburg Elks Lodge No. 1058 for approximately 17 years.

"Harrisburg lodge has handled between 400 and 500 crippled children's cases since I've been chairman," Mr. Arensman said. "Right now we have 23 active cases."

"For the past 15 years the Harrisburg lodge has been spending

State President Schnierle Third to Hold Post from Harrisburg Lodge

Eugene Schnierle of Harrisburg, elected president of the Illinois Elks Association at its annual convention last May, is the third member of Harrisburg Lodge No. 1058 to hold this high position.

In all of the South district of the association, comprising 17 Elks lodges, there have been only five state presidents since the association was formed in 1904. The first Harrisburg Elk to hold the highest position in the state was Dr. C. D. Midkiff, elected in 1928. Dr. H. J. Raley was elected in 1944 and Mr. Schnierle this year.

The other two from the South district were A. W. Jeffries of Hermin in 1936, and John E. Giles of Marion in 1951.

Initiated in 1935

President Schnierle has been very active in Elks work since his initiation in 1935. In 1938 he was appointed esquire of the lodge, and then went through the chairs of the lodge, interrupted only by war time service, until he was elected Exalted Ruler in 1950. He has served two terms as Exalted Ruler and currently is the senior member of the board of trustees of Harrisburg lodge.

Outside his home lodge, president Schnierle has served in a varied number of capacities in his district and state Elks activity. In

Elks Minstrels Carry On Tradition of the "Jolly Corks"

Schnierle Third from Lodge State President

1950-51 he was chairman of the South district Public Relations committee, in 1951-52 was elected vice-president of the South district, and in 1952-53 was appointed District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for the South District.

In 1953 he was elected treasurer of the Illinois Elks Association and was re-elected to that post in 1954. In 1956-57 he was elected vice-president at large of the Illinois Elks Association and this year was elected president. As vice-president he was in charge of the Illinois delegation to the Elks Grand Lodge convention at San Francisco in July, and took care of all arrangements for the Illinois group at that convocation.

Honorary Life Membership

One of his most important and least publicized functions as an Elk has been his service as general chairman of the Harrisburg Elks Minstrel since its inception eight years ago. In this position he has coordinated all activities of the minstrel, which serves as the sole fund-raising instrument of the Harrisburg lodge's outstanding crippled children's program, one of the finest in the state. His service in this capacity was especially noteworthy this year, when he took time out from the pressing duties of state president to again serve for his favorite charitable activity.

He holds an honorary life membership in Harrisburg lodge, awarded him last year by unanimous vote of the lodge.

John Thad Gaskins Made Elks Home Financially Possible

Construction of the new Elks Home in Harrisburg was made possible by the late John Thad Gaskins, prominent Harrisburg businessman. One of the most enthusiastic in his efforts in behalf of the new home, Mr. Gaskins made it possible for the Harrisburg lodge to finance the building. A charter member of the lodge and its oldest active member, Mr. Gaskins was an outstanding proponent of the ideals of Elksdom and continued to be active in the lodge until his death.

ELKS REPORT TO THE NATION

Periodically, the Order of Elks publishes in bound form, a report of its benevolent activities, which is known as "The Elks Report to the Nation," and copies are presented to the President of the United States and members of Congress. Copies of this report are also to be found in every Public Library in the United States.

The Daily Register, Harrisburg, Illinois

Bruce Campbell Was Dedication Speaker

Principal speaker at the dedication for the new Elk Home was the late Bruce Campbell of Nashville and East St. Louis, Past Grand Exalted Ruler of Elks.

Active in Elks' work for many years, Mr. Campbell served as chairman of the board of publication of the Elks magazine.

THE CLOCK ABOVE, which is used during initiation ceremonies and every night at the hour of eleven o'clock in the Harrisburg Elks Lodge room, is a memorial which was made and presented to the Lodge by one of its members, the late Lowell Reed. It is automatic and as the chimes sound, each numeral is lighted. As the stroke of eleven sounds, the entire face of the clock is illuminated. Besides being functional, the clock is a beautiful object of craftsmanship.

H. T. Towle
First Secretary

The late H. T. Towle, head of the Palace Clothing company, was first secretary of the Harrisburg Elks Lodge No. 1058. He was named temporary secretary of the lodge on the occasion of its inception in January, 1907, and served until April, 1907, when the charter of the lodge was in effect and officers were regularly elected.

Lee McGuire, deceased, was the first regularly elected secretary and served from 1907 until 1908.

ELKS CO-OPERATE WITH HIGH SCHOOL

Harrisburg Lodge of Elks has always wholeheartedly cooperated with the Harrisburg Township high school by conducting a yearly "Outstanding Student" essay contest furnishing transportation to inter-school activities, advertising support, entering floats and providing a car for the Queens and Maids of Honor in the annual Homecoming parade and all other school events.

In recent years the Elks Lodge has also conducted a dance and breakfast for the members of each graduating class.

REMEMBER "KING NEPTUNE"?—Pictured here is part of the crowd assembled on the square on April 10, 1943, as the famous hog was "auctioned" for war bonds during his famous tour of the state under the auspices of the Illinois Elks Association. Dr. H. J.
Raley, state president at the time, personally directed the tour, during which "King Neptune" was responsible for the sale of over $19 million in War Bonds. The day this picture was made, the fabulous hog brought pledges of $255,000 in Harrisburg alone.
War Bond sales were a vital portion of Elks' wartime activities, but other important functions included Elks Service Centers, scrap metal drives, servicemen's shelters, blood donor drives, and many others important to the nation's defense. (Photo courtesy Dr. Raley)

A FILE OF POTS AND PANS was the result of one of the Harrisburg Elks' scrap metal drives, this particular one being for crap aluminum. The local lodge, and many other lodges alike throughout the nation, collected huge amounts of scrap metal and paper to be re-melted into usable material for the war effort.

A GREATLY BELOVED ELK, Past Grand Exalted Ruler Bruce Campbell of Belleville, now deceased, is shown in this photo made following the initiation of a South District class of candidates at Harrisburg lodge on March 27, 1942. Several well-known Elks are shown in the photo, and they are listed according to the po-
C. E. Duff, president Illinois Elks Association, Bruce Campbell, PGER, and Albert "Red" Jeffreys, Herrin, Special District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler; (Back row, left to right) E. R. Fichtel, Carbondale, South district vice-president, Dr. H. J. Raley, Harris-burg's Exalted Ruler, and Dolph Bradshaw, Herrin, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler. (Photo courtesy Dr. Raley)

A PREVIOUS VISIT BY A GRAND EXALTED RULER — On March 27, 1946, Harrisburg lodge was honored by a visit from Grand Exalted Ruler Wade Kepner, shown here with past state president Dr. H. J. Raley. This occasion marked the only visit by a Grand Exalted Ruler during his active term of office until the visit tomorrow of Grand Exalted Ruler H. L. Blackledge.

Wartime Activities
Of Elks Lodge

During the war years, the Harrisburg Elks home was thrown open for the entertainment of service men and shelters were provided on all the highways for the use of men in service seeking to "thumb a ride."

The Elks home was headquarters for civilian defense. Large classes in first aid were conducted, and still is given to the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Salvation

Army, U. S. O., and other charitable organizations. The Elks promoted scrap drives, clean-up campaigns and gave generously of time and money in any way possible to aid in the war effort.

The earth weighs about 6,000 million million million tons.

Arensman Head of Children's Work 17 Years

For the past eight years the Harrisburg lodge's expenses for its crippled children's work have been financed by the Elks minstrels given in the fall.

"Without these minstrels, I don't know what we would do," Mr. Arensman commented.

Crippled children's work by Elks lodges started in 1928 at Moline and it was started here in 1931. The Illinois Elks Crippled Children's Association was incorporated in 1934 as a statewide project.

First Harrisburg chairman was Atty. L. M. Hancock, who was then county judge. He served in the capacity several years, and Hudson Muge was the second chairman. Mr. Muge was chairman until he went into the service at the outbreak of World War II and Mr. Arensman took over the work. Mrs. Robert Jackson was secretary for several years and Mrs. Fred Wilmoth has been secretary since before Mr. Arensman was named chairman.

Sponsor Most Cases

The crippled children's work starts with local clinics, with the Illinois Elks association paying for clinicians to go to different parts of the state to examine children and make recommendations. If hospitalization is needed, arrangements are made locally to send them to Illinois Research.

"During the past six years a clinic has been held in Harrisburg each August," Mr. Arensman said. "And during the past four or five years the Harrisburg lodge has sponsored more cases to Illinois Research than any lodge in the state."

Children from all of Saline, Pope and Hardin and all but the northern part of Gallatin county come to clinics held at Harrisburg. The 1957 clinic schedule for the south part of the state called for these clinics: February at Carmi, April at Marion, June at Herrin, August at Harrisburg, October at Murphysboro and December 11 the final clinic of the year will be at Carbondale. The 1958 schedule will be made out in January. Dr. C. O. Nyman at present is the clinician who visits Harrisburg.

Follow Through All Cases

Mr. Arensman said that the Elks lodge has received very good cooperation from parents in its efforts to help crippled children.

"The biggest number of cases come from lodge members who know of a family which has a child who needs help."

Mr. Arensman keeps his crippled children's work files in a three drawer cabinet at his shoe store on the east side of the square. Some of the individual files were more than an inch thick.

"Some of the patients have been carried as active cases for years," he stated. "There's one case here that was started in 1939 and is still active. When we start anything we follow it through."

ILLINOIS ELKS ASSOCIATION

Eugene W. Schnierle, President

On behalf of all the Elks lodges of the state of Illinois I feel highly honored to have the pleasure of extending a cordial and fraternal welcome to our Grand Exalted Ruler H. L. Blackledge.

I feel further honored that he has elected to participate in the observance of the Golden Anniversary of my home lodge. I am pleased to have Grand Exalted Ruler Blackledge learn firsthand of the extensive activities of the Elks of Illinois in carrying out the benevolent and philanthropic program as outlined by the Grand Lodge of our order.

It is our desire that his visit to Illinois will be most enjoyable and we unite with all of the other lodges in our organization in extending to him our very best wishes for a successful administration as Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Flying saucers made many front pages a few years ago. Thousands of people scanned the heavens for mysterious objects. Theories about the discs were brought forth by the dozen. For a long time we gave little heed to the fact or fiction of the objects or of the theories. Was man's great interest only a fad which caught his fancy? Or did we lose interest because no disaster befell men as a result of the strange missiles?

Man seems to switch his attention from one interest to another.
In jumping from idea to idea, or from theory to theory, let us not forget that there are some basic foundations for thinking and acting which cannot be treated as fads.

God and His teachings of love, faith and hope must be accepted as basic. They must be put into practice on a continuing basis by all men. We cannot switch our worship on and off as we do our interests in less eternal matters.

HALF an hour later he was with Carney in Provincetown. He had had to drive at a snail's pace; the fog was all but impenetrable. Carney said that Bob Brown and Miss Dolvin had gone to the Pink Bonnet, a gambling joint off Front Street, and were still there. The police knew all about the Pink Bonnet, but their hands were tied, it belonged to a prominent citizen.
"You know."

McKee knew. He said of the pair, "I figured it would be something like that," and handed over his notes.

Carney studies the names and the jotted information in the red

Lane Quits Cardinals, Named General Manager of Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Lane, who resigned earlier today as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was named today as general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

The Tribe's board of directors announced its selection of Lane following a 55-minute meeting here.

Lane succeeds Hank Greenberg, whose contract with the Indians was not renewed. Greenberg continues in the post until Jan. 1 and will receive an additional one year's salary after that.

Board Chairman William R. Daley, who announced Lane's hiring, said that "Frankie Lane is the next general manager and his term will be for three years."

Trade-Happy Lane made a reputation during nine years with Chicago and St. Louis by negotiating trades that involved a total of 200 players. The colorful diamond figure, 61 years "young," has a reputation for rebuilding slumping ball clubs.

Lane, who brought the Cardinals from a seventh place finish in 1955 to fourth last year and second this season, emphasized that his decision had nothing to do with owner August A. Busch Jr. or the Cards front office.

"Leaving Mr. Busch will be my principal regret," he said. "Our relations have been more than satisfactory and he has always given me 100 per cent cooperation. That goes for all the fine gentlemen on the board of directors, also."

He refused to be quoted directly on his reasons for terminating his St. Louis contract, which runs through 1958.

Although Lane steadfastly refused to say so, it was obvious that he felt deeply the newspaper criticism of some of the deals he made for the Cardinals, particularly that which sent second baseman Red Schoendienst to the New York Giants and who later went to the Braves.

Death Takes Mrs. Phillip Ziegler; Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Mary Alice Ziegler, 68, widow of Phillip Ziegler, died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Westmoreland, 908 South Land street, Harrisburg, at 12:30 a. m. ## Lots to Decide Three Winners in School Election

COLP, Ill. (AP)—Lots will be drawn Friday night to decide three winners in a stalemated school election here.

Williamson County School Supt. Russell Emery announced the procedure today after an election last Saturday to fill three vacancies on the board wound up with six persons receiving one write-in vote each.

Receiving votes were Malachi Duncan, John Webb, Mrs. Cleo Spears, Pete Marando, Merle Lockler and Mayor Frank Caliper.

Only four persons voted in the election and two ballots were spoiled.

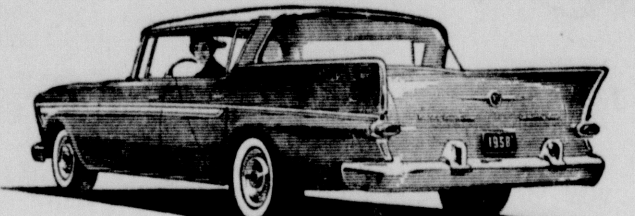

The gannet, a large, white sea bird, is related to the pelican.

Eagles End Season Unbeaten, Untied

Eldorado Wins Decisive 65-0 Tilt From Cairo; Feuquay Is Top Scorer

The Eldorado football season came to a grand and glorious close Monday afternoon on the Cairo gridiron with the high flying Eagles giving the home team a decisive 65-0 trouncing.

The win gave the Eagles a perfect season of nine victories, no losses and no ties, one of the very few teams in the state with such a record.

Showing their overall strength the Eagles soared to an astounding 432 points in the nine games and held the opposition to 32—a spread of an even 400 points.

And Eagle halfback Lester Feuquay took over individual scoring honors in southern Illinois, and maybe the state by ending up with a total of 215 points. In second place was Larry Hiller, Zeigler, with 209.

Feuquay Scores 38 Points

With Cairo pointing toward Feuquay as the game began, Eldorado's junior halfback Chuck McCallister raced for three TDs and a fourth came on a Justice-to-Wood pass.

With the game under control Eldorado began working for individual honors and Feuquay scored six TDs and an extra point in the last half. This added to a lone PAT in the first half gave him 38 points for the game.

It was strictly a team victory, but every starter and replacement had moments of individual glory. Fred Pool, center, and Bernard Goodlye, right tackle, waged a battle for tackling honors, each having seven clear cut tackles plus several assists before the third quarter was well underway.

Lafon recovered a fumble to set up a TD. Baugher made many of his around the ankle tackles. Mike McMahon intercepted a pass and ran it back about 25 yards to set up another TD.

Eagles Score Early

Woods had one particularly busy third second when he crashed in to block a punt, then fell on the bouncing ball and on the next play went into the end zone to take a TD pass. And Bob Holman spent a large part of the afternoon in the Cairo backfield hawking the would-be ball carriers. And the backs, Justice, Fowler, Feuquay and McCallister were their usual deceptive selves.

Eldorado scored early. Cairo took the opening kickoff to the 33 and three running plays resulted in a one yard loss, then a bad punt rolled dead on the C-38. On the second play McCallister went 38 yards for a TD, then Fowler converted and Eldorado led 7-0 with 9:22 left to play.

An exchange of plays found Eldorado with the ball on their own 22 and once again McCallister was sprung loose by the fine blocking of the Eldorado line and exceptional down-field blocking allowed him to go all the way for a 78-yard TD sprint. There was 4:32 left in the opening quarter. A couple of minutes later Woods went into his act, blocking a punt, recovering the ball and then taking a pass for the TD.

Recover Cairo Fumble

Only one TD was scored in the second quarter, but it was on the most beautiful run of the day.

Cairo was still pointing toward Feuquay and piled him up on the play but McCallister had the ball and threaded his way along for a TD.

Cairo had the ball deep in Eagle territory late in the half when Davidson intercepted a pass and ran it to the Eldorado 10 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage Baugher recovered a fumble on the 15 and the threat was over.

In the opening part of the third quarter Eldorado scored. Willis took Cairo's kickoff to the E-42 and four plays later Feuquay went over from 5 yards out. Feuquay scored two more times in the quarter, once from 4 yards and again on a 30 yards run and had a PAT.

Three fourth-quarter TDs were scored by Feuquay on runs of 8, 3 and 9 yards. Woods and Baugher took passes for PATs.

Join "400" Club

Statistics show Eldorado gathered 13 first downs, gained 359 yards from scrimmage, including 338 on the ground. The Eagles threw five passes, completing three, had one fall incomplete and one intercepted.

Cairo had four first downs and a net of 107 yards gained, including 68 via passing. Cairo completed seven passes, had seven in complete and two intercepted.

Unofficial records show that on ly two other southern Illinois high

HAPPY!—The Eldorado Eagles whooped it up in their dressing room following their decisive 65-0 victory over Cairo Monday afternoon to give the 1957 Eagles the finest record in all Eldorado football history. The Eagles had a 9-0-0 record. Coach Al Adams, with his 'good luck straw hat' looks tired but happy, but the players look just plain happy. Standing at Adams' right, (25), is Chuck McCallister who pitched in with three vital TDs in the first half. Others easily identified are Mike McMahon, (67) and Bernard Goodlye at his immediate left, regular tackles on the rugged line that allowed but 32 points in 9 ball games. The "black eyes" were burned cork applied to take away the glare.

Starting lineups: Eldorado: Woods and Baugher ends, McMahon and Goodlye tackles, Lafon and Holman guards, Pool center, Justice, Feuquay, McCallister and Fowler backs; Cairo: Bray and Lentz ends, Ogborn and Lanagan tackles, Controy and Simpson guards, Casey center,

Celtics Trim Hawks, 92 to 88

By United Press
The St. Louis Hawks didn't beat the Boston Celtics, but at least they made it close for a change. The Celtics set their season's record at nine victories and no defeats Monday night by trimming the Hawks, 92-88, at Boston. But the Eastern Division leaders were held to less than 100 points for the first time this year and their winning margin was far from their 14-point average. National Basketball Association Monday night.

Bull Dogs Bow to Rangers, 26-6

Conference Tilt at Benton Saturday Night Ends 2-7 Local's Season

The Benton Rangers, piling up a net 385 yards from scrimmage compared with 94 by Harrisburg, thumped the Bull Dogs, 26 to 6, at Benton Saturday night. The tilt ended a 2-7 season for Harrisburg.

It was a cold night and neither team was up to top strength. Both Coach Lawrence Caluffetti and Coach Ralph Davison had three first stringers out among the lists of ailing. Harrisburg first eleven men out were Ira Logan, Gary Aldridge and Bill Endsley.

Harrisburg's touchdown came in the third quarter after a sustained drive that went 53 yards. Benton was leading 13-0 when quarterback Ray Hassett went over from the two to make the count 13 to 6. Ronnie Maynard's kick for extra point was low.

Benton scored in the first period when Ronnie McLean went over from the 2 and in the second when McLean smashed over from the 3 after fullback Dave Walker had set up the touchdown with a 43-yard run. Quarterback Burton Willis kicked the extra point.

Then came Harrisburg's touchdown drive which featured a 10-yard run by Darrell Duke and two nine-yard smashes by Eddie Price. Twelve plays later, as the third quarter was ending, Walker smashed 15 yards for a touchdown and in the fourth period McLean went over from the one after a 65-yard run by McLean had taken the ball into Harrisburg territory. Willis again kicked the extra point.

McLean's long run followed a drive by Harrisburg which ended when Harrisburg, with second down and three to go for a touchdown, fumbled and lost the ball.

Statistics: First downs, Harrisburg 6, Benton 13; yards gained rushing, Harrisburg 81, Benton 355; passing, Harrisburg one out of seven for 13 yards, with one intercepted, Benton two out of six for 30 yards; penalties, Harrisburg penalized 20 yards, Benton 35.

Coach Caluffetti started Bill Yates and Don Pickford at ends, Ronnie Maynard and Jack Simpson at tackles, Henry Winters and Darrell Biggs at guards, Allen Buchanan at center; Ray Hassett at quarterback, Darrell Duke and Mickey Stone at halfbacks and Eddie Price at fullback. Wendell Fisher was in the game at all times on defense and others seeing action were Joe Wathen at end and Harold Beal at tackle.

Carrier Mills Wildcats Win Homecoming Tilt from Rosiclare

Find Scoring Touch in Final Period, Win 50-45

The Carrier Mills Wildcats, after three more-or-less futile quarters, found their scoring touch in the fourth frame and made a large homecoming crowd happy Saturday night by taking a 50-45 decision from Rosiclare.

Cold, cold shooting, combined with fairly effective defensive play, kept both teams from reaching the scoring heights their followers have become accustomed to in years past.

The first period was about half over before CM broke into the scoring column on a free toss by Mitchell. Rosiclare had gone in front 5-0 on a fielder and free toss by Edwards and a 2-point by Green.

With only 40 seconds remaining and Rosiclare in front 6-3 Williams connected from the field for the first Wildcat field goal. Rann and Mitchell followed with goals to put CM in front 9-6 as the quarter closed.

Both teams continued to run, shoot and miss more often than hit in the second quarter and the half ended with the score knotted at 20-20.

Wildcats Trail in Third

The Carrier Mills' homecomers were mighty quiet during the third frame, with the Wildcats being outscored 15-8 and trailing 35-28 at the opening of the last frame.

Carrier Mills began to move at the start of the final frame, scoring nine consecutive points while holding Rosiclare to zero and with 5:50 to play the Wildcats tied the count at 37-36. Rosiclare tied the count at 37-37 with 5:10 to go, then a free toss by Rann put CM ahead 38-37 and the winners were in front the rest of the way and homecoming was complete.

The last quarter was featured by the fine free shooting of Bill Smith, who hit on 10 of 13 tries. Going into the last quarter CM had hit on 10 of 23 free throw efforts, but a good last quarter gave the "Cats a 24-18 mark at the free throw line. Rosiclare hit nine and missed 16. The field goal shooting was under the 200 mark.

Carrier Mills was paced in the scoring department by Charles Rann, a senior playing high school ball for the first time. Rann hit on six field goal tries and five from the free throw line for 17 points. Edwards was high for Rosiclare with 12.

Both teams were hampered by the loss of their top performer. Vern Rollins was out of the CM lineup due to scholastic difficulties and Donnie Seay, lone returning veteran of Rosiclare's first team

GRAND Bull Pups Nose Out Benton, 14-13

The Harrisburg Bull Pups nosed out Benton, 14-13, in a thrilling freshman-sophomore football game Monday night at Taylor Field.

Benton made 13 points the first quarter and the game was scoreless until the final frame when Harrisburg scored 14 to win.

In the last period Larry Conrad got off for a 60-yard touchdown gallop and Roger Aldridge followed with a touchdown jaunt of between 30 and 40 yards. First extra point was by the fullback through tackle and the second was made when Larry Willis picked up a fumble in the backfield and raced around end for the point. Benton threatened in the closing moments on long passes, and the game ended with a Benton pass receiver being tackled on the H-3.

Coach Jim Beers started Johnsor and Donovan at ends, Kane and Pickford at tackles with Smith in at all times on defense, Roberts and Frantz at guards, Ellis at center, Barter at quarterback, Ledford and Wise at halfbacks and Aldridge and Conrad alternating at fullback.

American Education Week

Growing Consciousness in U. S. Education Must Be Major Concern

Distinguished Visiting Professor of Higher Education
Southern Illinois University
American Education Week this year finds the American public more aware than ever before of the importance of education and of the problems facing schools and colleges.

In recent years there has been a growing consciousness that education must be our major concern if we are to preserve and improve our free society and democratic way of life. There is increasing recognition that the schools belong to the people, and, consequently, that education is everybody's business and everybody's responsibility. American Education Week is designed especially to focus attention on this responsibility.

The problems facing the schools today are staggering in their complexity. One major problem is sheer numbers: how to accommodate millions more children annually in schools for the most part already inadequate and overcrowded. Another is the difficulty of financing a sound education for all, especially in this time of rapidly rising costs.

Shortage of Teachers

An even greater problem is finding enough qualified teachers to staff the schools. The National Education Association estimates that to fill the new positions created by the increasing number of children and to replace those who leave the teaching profession, the nation needs at least 125,000 new teachers each year.

Above all, there is the perennial problem of the curriculum, of what the schools should teach to achieve objectives appropriate to our society. This problem is aggravated by the remarkable advances and requirements of modern technology. Rapid changes in so many areas of life also present the schools with new and greater responsibilities for the education of adults.

In meeting these problems, school people, parents and the general public must be aware of the constant need to improve the schools, to so conduct them that their products are increasingly better equipped to cope with the complex world in which they find themselves. Fortunately, help is available through many of our colleges and universities. Their major contribution to the schools, of course, is the preparation of teachers and administrators.

There is little doubt that the vast majority of new teachers are better qualified for their work than ever before. However, colleges and universities will be hard pressed to provide the large numbers of new teachers needed for the future unless the public assists in the recruitment of able young people for teaching and supports the higher salaries that will attract and hold these young people.

By Dr. Francis H. Horn

Aid to Communities

But the colleges and universities provide other significant services to the schools which enable them to carry on their work more effectively. These services include the further education of teachers and administrators through graduate programs, special courses, and workshops; research in the problems of the schools and of the educational process; and consultation services by faculty specialists. Communities located in the area served by Southern Illinois University are especially fortunate in the professional assistance available to them. As a newcomer to the faculty, I have been greatly impressed by the philosophy of service to the community that permeates S.I.U. In some state universities, lip service is paid to such a philosophy, but the faculty still inhabits its ivory tower. At S.I.U., however, there is genuine appreciation of the University's role of service.

School districts and school personnel in Southern Illinois are fortunate indeed to have the University so close at hand and so willing and able to assist them in meeting the problems that lie ahead. American Education Week is an appropriate time not only for the public to take a good look at the schools, but also for the public and school people to determine in what areas they could use help from the University.

I am sure that S.I.U. officials will continue to welcome the opportunity to assist communities in this most important of all community activities—education.

Thief to Pay Up

EAST PATERSON, N. J.—(UP)—A penitent thief is easing his conscience on the installment plan. Patrolman John Petrucci found $5 and an unsigned note addressed to the victim, a resident of Saddle Brook. The note said:

"Dear Sir, I am sorry I have taken the money at St. Leo's Roman Catholic Church. I realize I was wrong. There is $1 missing. I will try to return that also."

Churches Urged to Provide Special Worship Services, Classes for Handicapped

By LOUIS CASSELLS

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—Jesus Christ in his earthly ministry displayed a special concern for handicapped people—the blind, deaf, crippled and mentally disturbed.

Protestant churches throughout America are now being urged to follow their Lord's example in this regard.

There are several million people in this country who suffer from mental or physical handicaps which make it difficult or impossible for them to participate in regular church programs. A comparatively few churches already provide special worship services and religious education classes for them.

But Protestant leaders have long been aware that most local churches are neglecting the spiritual needs of the handicapped.

The first important step toward remedying this situation was taken last month. Representatives of major denominations met at Green Lake, Wis., under the auspices of the National Council of Churches, and agreed to work together "to arouse churches of their responsibility" to provide suitable Christian education programs for all types of handicapped persons.

The conferees recommended a long-range, cooperative program of training special teachers, preparing special Sunday school curriculum materials, and advising local churches and pastors on specific ways in which they can minister more effectively to the handicapped. They asked that a new unit be set up within the Christian Education Division of the national council to oversee the effort. The Rev. W. Randolph Thornton, administration director of the Christian Education Division, told the United Press that it is now up to local churches and to denominational headquarters to decide how swiftly these recommendations are carried out.

The big problem, as usual, is money. One hope is that some wealthy philanthropist, or foundation, may see fit to underwrite the cost (about $20,000 a year) of setting up the proposed new council unit, or the considerably larger costs of establishing a national workshop to train teachers for the handicapped.

Meanwhile, Thornton said, local churches can pool their resources on a community basis to provide Christian education classes.

Vermont's Busy Bees

BURLINGTON, Vt.—(UP)—Last year, about 10,000 colonies of bees produced about 400,000 pounds of honey in Vermont to top the New England average. The honey produced was valued at $122,000, according to Enoch Tompkins of the University of Vermont.
